CHICAGO, SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1901.

PRICE 5 CENTS

DONE AT HAWTHORNE.

The last day's sport for Hawthorne's season of 1901 passed off with eclat, the splendid card of seven races drawing out an immense crowd that tested both tiers of the grand stand to their capacity. This last two weeks' meeting at the pretty Stickney course has been very successful in every particular, the attendance being fully up to that of midsummer days. The cards presented by Secretary Sheridan Clark have been excellent throughout and no better sport has been witnessed anywhere. Yesterday's set of seven races was up to the best standard and was replete with good racing.

The star attraction of the day was the Speculation Stakes, a handicap sweepstakes for three-year-olds and upward at one and one-eighth miles with $1,000 added. The value of the stake to the winner was $1,780. Pink Coat on his clever showing of September 20, when he appeared to be rounding back to his midsummer form, was made an odds on favorite. Argregor was rushed to the front at flag fall but had not gone far before Pink Coat joined him. They ran lapped for six furlongs where Coburn suddenly stole a length on Pink Coat, an advantage which he maintained to the end. Pink Coat tried to close on Argregor in the last eighth but Coburn would not be denied and held his mount clear, to the line. He won by a length while Pink Coat beat Star Chamber two lengths for second place. The latter was easily outrun from start to finish and was palpably outclassed.

The steeplechase over the short course proved to be an easy affair for Flaccus, which showed he was too much for Corrillo at the difference in the weights. The latter held a comfortable lead until just after passing beyond the sixth jump where Flaccus was urged into the van and although Corrillo appeared dangerous several times thereafter the former was never headed, winning easily by five lengths, while Corrillo finished fifteen in front of the spent Captain Conover. Corrillo took the jumps a shade lower than usual and came near stumbling several times. Captain Conover appears to have staked a little. Little John fell over the first jump.

Money Muse got off with a full running start in the fifth race, a sprint affair of six furlongs, and making the best of this early advantage he simply smothered his field with speed, never being headed thereafter. He won well in hand by a length from W. J. Debee, which came with a rush at the end and beat out The Pride a length for second place. His race was a surprisingly good one, as he had not started in some time. Maggie Davis ran her usual honest race. Toeh was the victim of a weak ride and was pocketed badly up to the head of the stretch. Headwater ran nowhere near his true form.

The two-year-olds had the first race, a dash of six and a half furlongs for all ages, between them. Buzzah won by three-quarters of a length from Bragg, which finished six in front of Pyrrho for second place. Little Jack Horner, which has not started hereabout for some time, started out as if he was going to make a runaway affair of the race, leading by a fair margin up to the head of the stretch, where he began to prop badly and fell away beaten. Buzzah then took up the running and remained in front to the end. Bragg ran away over a quarter of a mile to a false break or else he might have won, as he held on clear up to last fifty yards and altogether ran a good race. He came a disappointing race and is capable of a far better showing.

McChesney proved by his victory in the third race, a dash once around the ring for two-year-olds, that he is probably the best of his age in the west at present over a distance of ground. He was conceding weight to everything in the race yet he came away with a rush when called upon in the last eighth and won in hollow fashion by two lengths from Lucien Appleby which beat Mollie T. the same distance for second place. Lucien Appleby closed up fast after bending for home but had no chance to beat the winner. Mollie T.'s effort was an excellent one as it was generally supposed she could not negotiate the distance. Tommy Foster ran nowhere near his true form and his race should be thrown out in future calculations. There was a strong tip out on Wild Oats but he could not run a little bit at any part of the journey.

The two-mile race that Kentucky Babe ran third in on September 23 appeared not to have hurt her any, as she put up one of the best races of her career in the sixth event, a one and one-sixteenth miles dash for three year-olds and upward. Monos set out to show the way, leading by a fair margin for six furlongs, where he resigned in favor of Kentucky Babe. Miss Soak ran lapped on the latter up to the last eighth post, where Kentucky Babe drew away and won rather handily by a half length, while Miss Soak just lasted long enough to hold second place from the fast-closing Ben Chance by a neck. Monos had enough when the rub came. Fantasy finished fast and strongly.

George Arnold had little trouble in beating Cambrian in the last race of the season at the Hawthorne track, a dash of a mile and fifty yards. Cambrian ran lapped on him to the head of the stretch where Winkfield called on George Arnold and he came away without much trouble winning by a length. Cambrian was under heavy punishment all through the last eighth. He beat Flying Torpedo three lengths for second place. The latter was sadly outclassed and thus ended the season at the Stickney course, which has probably been the most successful in its history.

WORTH'S OFFERINGS.

The Worth Jockey Club's fall meeting of fifteen days promises much in the way of splendid racing. The condition book now in the hands of the printer contains many attractive handicaps and purse races. During the first nine days the Worth October Handicap, at a distance of one mile, with $1,000 added; the Illinois Handicap, $1,000 added, one and one-eighth miles, and the Blue Island Handicap, $1,000 added, one mile and a quarter, are special events that will attract the better class of horses. Races of the value of $600, $700 and $800 are numerous through the book.

Col. W. S. Barnes has applied from Lexington for stable room for fifteen horses at Worth, and as room had been reserved for him, Secretary Hiller wired him to ship whenever ready. Col. Barnes' horses have had a long rest at the Melbourne Stud farm, and are now fresh and ready to race, and will be a valuable acquisition to the number of large stables now racing here. Among the list are Lady Elite, Fancy Wood, Autumn Leaves, Scarlet Lily, Pribeloffe and other good ones.

The Worth officials are considering the feasibility of giving the 'no recall' flag a trial during the meeting. It is said Starter Dwyer is partial to that system of starting, and it may only be a matter of time until it is adopted permanently, both on the eastern and western tracks.

Presiding Judge M. N. Macfarlan has been in Chicago since the closing of the Windsor meeting and has been a daily visitor to the local tracks, and has watched the racing closely.

Winner—B. c. by Faverdale—Pilgrimage.

Went to post at 2:15. At post 9 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second driving. Stuart, at the weights, was much the best. Connie is remarkably improved and outran and outstayed the others. Satire, however, got away badly. Bedeck closed a big gap and was going very strongly at the end. Templeton is good again and will win soon. Modrine was dull of speed today. Military is of no present account. Contend had no chance at the start.

Scratched—27140 Touraine, 98.

The Rhymer was driving throughout to keep up and benefitting by the pace-maker's tiring at the end, got up in the last stride. McAddie was the best horse but beat himself in disposing of Smoke. He showed fine form and is both fast and game.

Scratched—28133 Kamara, 112; 28453 Toddy, 105; 28451 Roxane, 90; 28474 Rowdy, 98.

Winner—B. f. by Lissak—Truth.

Went to post at 3:15. At post 7 minutes. Start straggling. Won handily; second driving. Lady Holyrood's tremendous advantage at the start won for her. She is in fine form. Eddie Busch finished with a rush right at the end and caught Francesco in the last stride. Francesco had no mishaps and possibly he was short. Pearl Finder, lucky and light-weighted, ran a fair race. Pre-emption and Andy Williams closed big gaps. Arsenal was easing up in the last furlong. He had but a small chance at the start but covered a lot of ground to get up and was evidently the best. Leonid's race was poor. Watch Hindred.

Scratched—27115 Alibert, 104; 28477 Trump, 97; 28501 Ascension, 94; 28348 Broadstreet, 97.

Overweights—Oclawaha, 3 pounds.

Winner—B. f. by Inspector B.—Early Morn.

Went to post at 4:10. At 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Maduranee by Right quickly assumed command and the result thereafter was hardly ever in doubt, yet the only was evidently doing her best in the stretch and a really great colt in Heno was beaten in this race. He stood a tremendous drive for the last three furlongs and was going very strongly at the end. From a time standpoint the race was phenomenal. Heno was timed the last three eighths in thirty five seconds.

Scratched—28313 Combrero, 115.

28551 FIFTH RACE—1 1-8 Mile. All Ages. The Occidental Handicap. $1500 added. (Run as fourth race.)

Winner—B. c. by Albert—Bonnie Ola.

Went to post at 3:45. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Herbert galloped well in hand behind the two pace-makers to the stretch where he easily went into the lead and without much effort stood off Advance Guard's strong challenge at the end. The latter ran his usual strong, consistent race. The Regent ran a fast horse in Toddy to a standstill and yet stuck to his work at the end in the gamiest possible fashion. He is always ridden with bad judgment and could come from behind and win races that he now fails in. Kamara, poorly handled, trailed under a stiff pull for the first mile and was pocketed in the stretch. Toddy ran in greatly improved form and favors light weight.

Herbert, show, 1 to 3. Advance Guard, show, 2 to 5. The Regent, show, 4 to 5. Toddy, show, 1 to 3.

He is a good colt and like a route. Lucien Appleby came with a rush at the end, but had no chance to beat the winner. Mollie T. ran a surprisingly good race and was right there for seven furlongs. Miracle II. had enough when a furlong out. Tommy Foster ran a disappointing race and can do better. Bessie Spahr ran well for six furlongs.

Corrillo could not concede the weight and began to tire in the stretch. He jumped a shade lower than usual and came near falling several times. Captain Conover is probably going back. He is a safe jumper. Little John went down in a heap over the first jump.

JOCKEYS HANDICAPPED.

DAILY RACING FORM will from now on publish each week a table of the rating of the jockeys riding at each track based on their performance in the saddle. The best riders at each track will be given the uniform rating of 100, and from that point the others will be graded down according to their estimated relative skill. For a difference of five points between the jockeys a corresponding five points change in the handicap figures assigned the horses in any race must be made. Only riders frequently in the saddle will be given a place in the tables. The following is the rating of the jockeys now riding over the various tracks:

Winner--Br. c, by Lamplighter--Triana.
Went to post at 4:45. At post 12 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second the same. The race was practically confined to the first three. O'Connor rode a confident looking race on Igniter, but was driving at the end to beat Renaud, which hung on very gamely. Caughnawaga was outrun to the stretch, but closed up very fast at the end. Major Daingerfield is a bad horse in a big field and favors a heavy track anyway. Slipthrift is well remembered.
Scratched--28127 Major Tenny, 110; 28127 Cast Iron, 110; Pignot, 110; 28478 Batyah, 107; 28501 Anak, 110.

Went to post at 5:15. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Rokane galloped unextended throughout and far outclassed her field. She is a very fast filly and will probably have a chance when in with the best. Lee King, a sad in and out, finished strongly. Little Daisy showed fine speed. Knight of the Garter got away badly and closed a big gap. Lone Fisherman quit.
Scratched--28404 Wait Not, 104; 28473 Bowen, 100.
